FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACKERMAN SECURITY SYSTEMS AND
GWINNETT COUNTY POLICE
JOIN IN
POLICE OFFICERS
CRIME PREVENTION TRAINING
TUESDAY, November 18, 2003

Fifteen police officers from the Gwinnett County Police Department received accredited training at Ackerman Security's Systems Atlanta headquarters. The visit by the Gwinnett County Police Department was part of its ongoing training and education program. Specifically, the officers received instruction in the latest technology for residential and commercial security systems, access control and remote video surveillance.

Burt Kolker, Director of Marketing for Ackerman Security Systems conducted the training, as he has for many other Georgia Police Departments.

Additionally, a tour of Ackerman's Underwriters Laboratories certified central monitoring station was conducted. This U.L. central monitoring station is housed within Ackerman's 12,000 square foot facility, and monitors for Ackerman clients exclusively.

Ackerman Security Systems, since 1967, has sold and installed residential and commercial security systems, access control and CCTV, home theatre, surround sound and lighting.
